

DING FONG ENGINEERING TRADING CO., LTD.

Ding Fong Trading and Construction Co., Ltd, which was established since 2013, is an agent importing, consuming, distributing and providing chemical materials from many suppliers in local and overseas. Besides, it offers technologies and services for execution of chemical projects.

We are currently seeking for dynamic and motivated candidates, who wish to Field Officer their abilities in new technology environment to join our team in positions of Accountant, Administration, Receptionist, and Construction Technician

Position: Construction Technician

Job Description and Requirement:

- The Construction Technician will be responsible for renovation and construction of training projects.
- Maintenance, preventative maintenance and repairs to training projects, buildings, support facilities and grounds.
- May be required to provide assistance to support field training sessions.
- May be required to provide assistance to assist other programs such as Industrial, SCBA, Mechanics, and Extinguishers with facilities / class operations. This position will report to the Construction Manager.
- One year building trades or construction experience to include any combination of the following: Welding, pipefitting, plumbing, concrete, basic electrical, carpentry, painting, heavy equipment operation and use of hand/power tools.
- High School Diploma or GED.